Information

The Community Information Service and Access Guide for Southern Test Valley is provided by Romsey Area Information Network.

This will enable you to access information about a wide range of community and health services within Southern Test Valley

The Information Centres on the front and those marked with a * each have a RAIN folder with information about other groups and can refer you to the most appropriate people to help with your enquiry.

There are 50 RAIN folders around Southern Test Valley and the data is regularly up-dated to ensure that the latest information is available

Ring or visit any of the centre offices or visit the website and send your query online -
